

UBF Online English Forum for Missionaries & Leaders

Dear UBF mission co-workers,

May God's grace and peace be with you! Even though we face difficulties and limitation in the gospel work due to the global pandemic, we believe that God is doing his mighty work among us. We are launching the "UBF Online English Forum" according to God's will for his kingdom glory. The purposes of this Forum are to support communication and fellowship between missionaries/leaders and to build a loving community through edifying discussions, education, and prayers. Through this Forum, we hope to prepare for the post-Covid 19 era and serve God's work with strength.

The targeted groups for the forum are English-speaking missionaries and leaders around the world. Meetings will be held monthly, and the forum duration will be around 2 hours. This forum will be conducted in English for English-speaking missionaries and leaders including those of the next generation.
